

Confused about training? Not sure what you need to be considered trained? We've tried to boil it down here for you so that you can tell at a glance what you need. Once you have completed the training listed below, you are eligible to wear the trained patch on your uniform that is shown below. Please refer to the Insignia Guide for proper placement.

Your Position What do I have to take to be considered trained?

Cub Scout Leaders

Tiger Cub Den Leaders & Assistants

1. Youth Protection Training (take this course online)
2. Cub Scout Fast Start (take this course online)
3. New Leader Essentials
4. Tiger Cub Den Leader Specific

Wolf and Bear Den Leaders & Assistants

- 1. Youth Protection Training (take this course online)
- 2. Boy Scout Fast Start (take this course online)
- 3. New Leader Essentials (take this course online)
- 4. Scoutmaster & Assistant Scoutmaster Specifics (take this course online)

Boy Scout Leaders

Scoutmasters & Assistant Scoutmasters

- 1. Youth Protection Training (take this course online)
- 2. Boy Scout Fast Start (take this course online)
- 3. New Leader Essentials
- 4. Scoutmaster & Assistant Scoutmaster Specifics
- 5. Introduction to Outdoor Leadership Skills

Committee Chair & Committee Members

- 1. Youth Protection Training (take this course online)
- 2. Boy Scout Fast Start (take this course online)
- 3. New Leader Essentials
- 4. Troop Committee Challenge (take this course online)

Varsity Leaders

Varsity Coach & Team Committee

1. Youth Protection Training (take this course online)
2. Varsity Leader Fast Start (take this course online)
3. New Leader Essentials
4. Varsity Leader Specific

Venturing Leaders

Venturing Leader & Crew Committee

1. Youth Protection Training (take this course online)
2. Venturing Leader Fast Start (take this course online)
3. New Leader Essentials
4. Venturing Leader Specific

